FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

As the days at Brewer High pass by, we find ourselves reflecting on cherished memories. Among these are memories of the people who have helped us along the way, the people who we admire and respect, our faculty. Members of the faculty have educated, inspired, led, and befriended many students. They have touched many more lives than they will ever know and every member is held in deep appreciation.

James R. Tucker exhibits qualities of tremendous value as principal of Brewer High School. He is of strong character, of great spirit, and of unending dedication. He helps to keep the "Patriot Pride" alive in everyone, for it is this pride that makes Brewer High one of the top schools in Alabama. Through his hard work and dedication, Mr. Tucker has truly earned the respect and admiration of all.

Greg Orr paints blocks to be sold.

The TMR class at Brewer High School is ranked, by the state auditor, as one of the top-rated classes in the state. Even Wes Thompson, the Superintendent of Education, commented on the superiority of the class.

The students take much pride in their work. They work with power tools. Some people think it is dangerous to let the students operate power tools. Tim Dunlap, instructor of TMR, commented, "There is dignity in risk." The students' work is quality work because they are very careful.

The purpose of Child Care and Guidance is to provide learning experience in child growth and development and opportunities to develop skills in working with preschool children. Three days a week, fifteen children between the ages of three and five are in the center.

On the days pre-schoolers are here, the Child Care students carry out the same activities they would if they were employed in a nursery school. A student who enjoys working with children and possesses wholesome attitudes toward working with others would enjoy taking a course in Child Care.

Students display on costume day!

Tuesday at Brewer was a return of the fifties craze. Students did the Jitterbug and Twist and Stroll at the sock hop, complete with poodle skirts, bobby socks, leather jackets and greased hair. On Formal Day, Wednesday, students wore dresses or suits and ties. Thursday was Masquerade Day. At break prizes were given to students with the best costumes.

Friday, Red White and Blue Day, people really showed their pride by wearing the Patriot colors. The day was highlighted by a pep rally. The cheerleaders did a super dance routine to the song "Pretty Young Thing" by Micheal Jackson. FHA, B-Club, and the Thespians performed skits. The Senior Class won the Spirit Stick, and everyone looked forward to attending the Homecoming Game that night.

HOMECOMING QUEEN
DONITA SHARP

What makes a Brewer Homecoming Queen? In order to make a Brewer Queen, you start with a girl who possesses beauty both inside and outside. Next, you add a warm, outgoing personality, mix in some school involvement and spirit, add a little bit of originality, and finish with a winning smile.

Escorted by Bill Robershaw, our 1984 Brewer High Homecoming Queen, Donita Sharp, received the traditional kiss from Mr. James Tucker during the crowning at halftime. Donita, the auburn haired, blue eyed daughter of Huey and Linda Sharp, possesses all of these qualities. She enjoys being outdoors, listening to the radio, playing softball, basketball and going to football games. Donita is a member of FHA and B-Club.

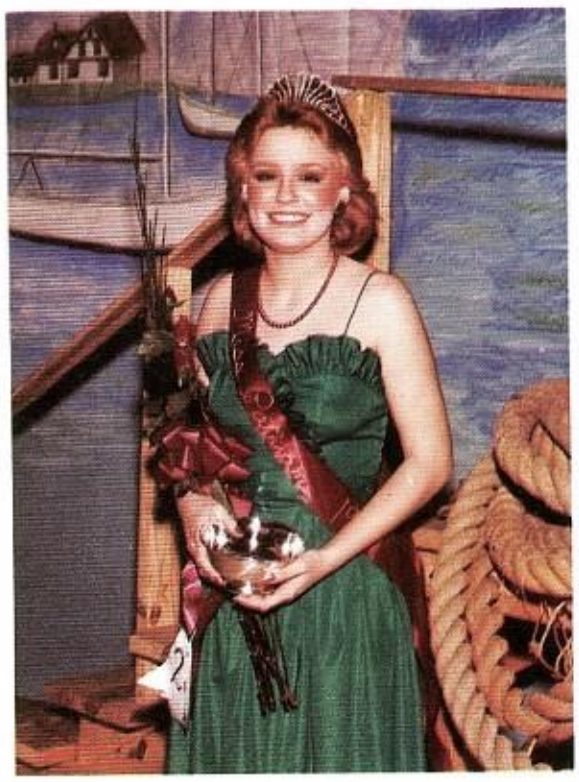
MISS PATRIAN 1984

ANNA THOMPSON

Contestants for Miss Patrian are judged on the criteria of beauty and poise. Beauty is defined as the "agregate qualities in a person that give pleasure to the senses." Poise is by definition "a particular way of carrying oneself, composure, assurance, dignity, bearing." Possessing these qualities, Anna Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dyke Thompson, was selected Miss Patrian 1984 and was crowned by the 1983 Miss Patrian, Kristy Galbreath.



Fourth Runner-up — Kristy Ransom, Third Runner-up — Kelley Lenox, Second Runner-up — Jada Johnson, First Runner-up — Kelly Johnson, Miss Patrian — Anna Thompson.

Contestants for the Miss Patrian pageant, sponsored by the annual staff are selected by clubs for participation. Contestants are judged on the basis of beauty and poise during competition in two categories: casual wear and evening gowns. Casual wear competition, which takes place in the afternoon, includes an informal interview with the judges. After the evening gown competition scores received in both categories are combined to determine the Top Twenty finalists. From those twenty contestants the Five Finalists are chosen.

BLOOD DRIVE

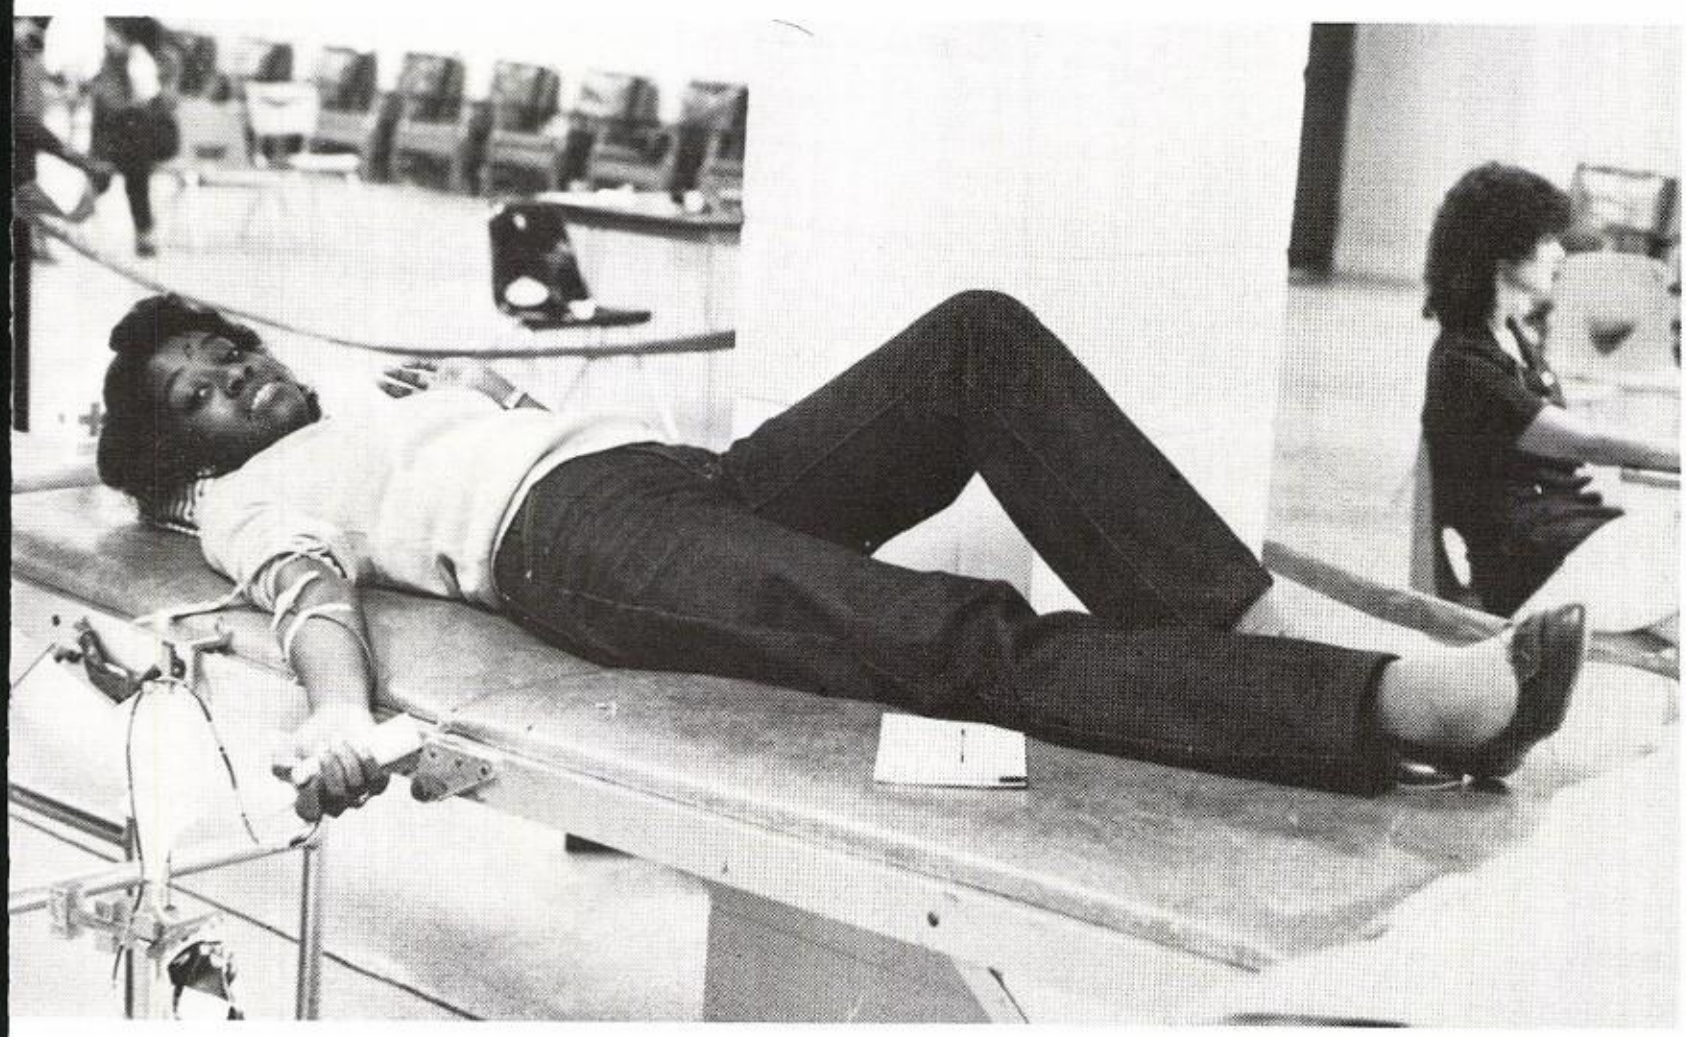
Red Cross Volunteer Nurse

Brewer's 1983 Red Cross Blood Drive, sponsored by the Student Council, was a big success. To give blood is a relatively simple and definitely worthwhile way to help people. The donated blood is used to help accident victims and also to help combat such things as infectious diseases. Much to the credit of the chairman, Allison Murphy, and co-chairman, Pam Oldacre; this year's blood drive exceeded its goal by 4 pints of blood with an outstanding of 114 pints.



Dianne Jackson smiles as she generously gives her blood.

IDEAL SENIORS

The title "Ideal Senior" comes from the basis on which ideal seniors are selected. Seniors are named by their peers as possessing a human feature or characteristic that is "Ideal." Nominees are chosen by homeroom and their names are placed on a ballot under the category for which they were nominated. Then, each senior class member votes for the person he feels best represents each category. The votes are counted and from this ideal seniors are selected. Although this is only Brewer's second year to chose ideal seniors, most students feel that it has already become a lasting tradition.

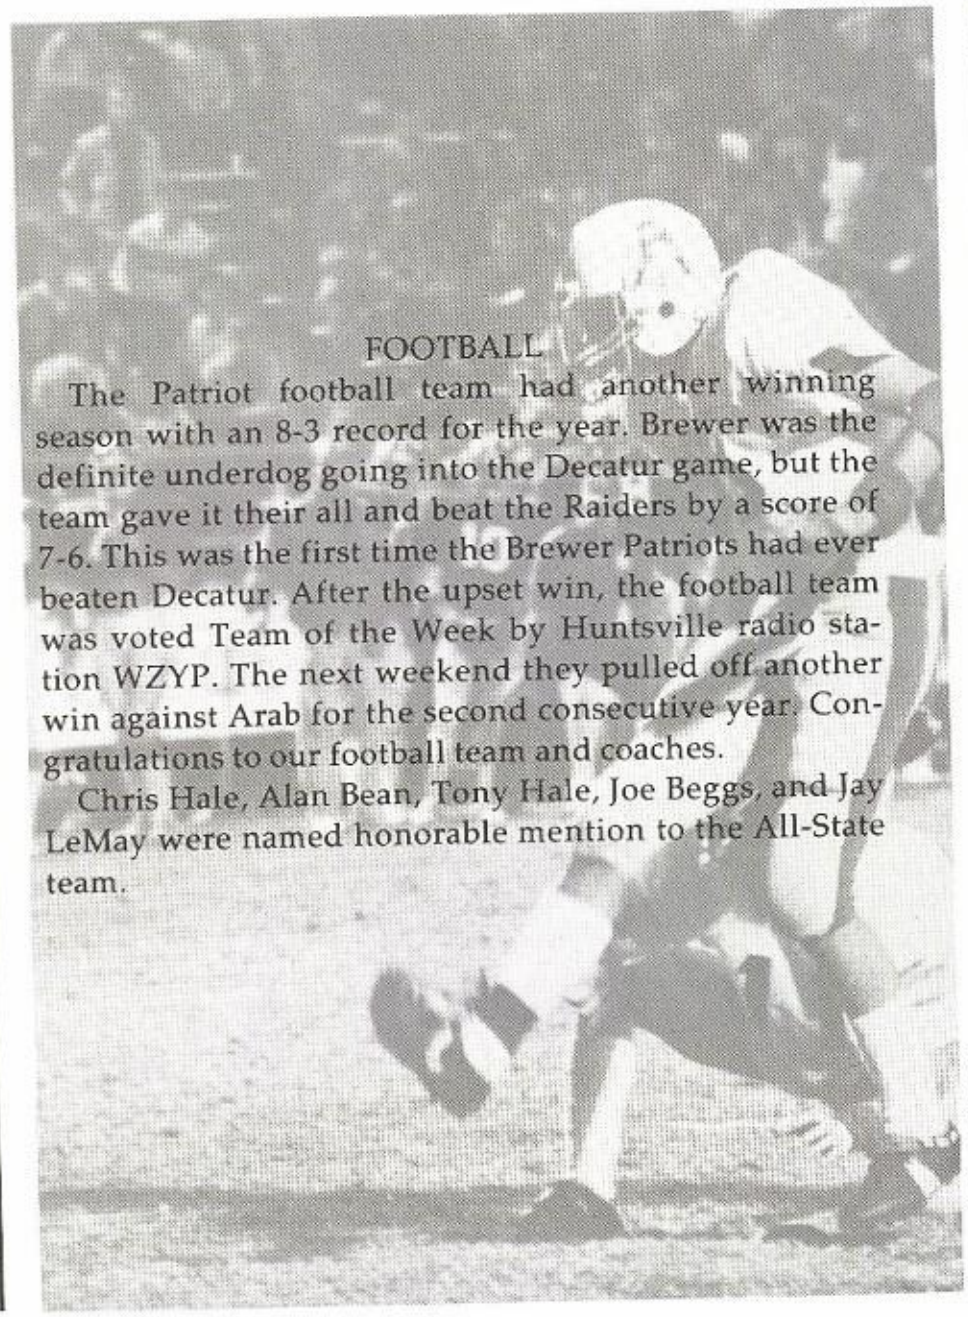
MIGHTY PATRIOTS



FOOTBALL

The Patriot football team had another winning season with an 8-3 record for the year. Brewer was the definite underdog going into the Decatur game, but the team gave it their all and beat the Raiders by a score of 7-6. This was the first time the Brewer Patriots had ever beaten Decatur. After the upset win, the football team was voted Team of the Week by Huntsville radio station WZYP. The next weekend they pulled off another win against Arab for the second consecutive year. Congratulations to our football team and coaches.

Chris Hale, Alan Bean, Tony Hale, Joe Beggs, and Jay LeMay were named honorable mention to the All-State team.

Teamwork

The team is in the huddle.

The Brewer High Volleyball team had a successful 1983 season; they had an 18-9 record during regular season and were undefeated in the Morgan County Tournament. Andrea Bryner was voted Most Valuable Player of the County Tournament. Representing Brewer on the All-County team were Andrea Bryner, Pam Oldacre, Amanda Tyler, and Peggy Durham. The volleyball team then went to the Regional Tournament and finished with a tournament record of 2-2. When asked about the toughest match played this season, Coach Ricky Allen immediately thought of Austin High School, "We played Austin in the County Tournament at Brewer. It was a pressure situation because the game was in the semi-finals of the County Tournament. Since the game was during school, the girls really wanted to make a good impression and they did." The Varsity team defeated Austin and went on to defeat Decatur 15-4, 15-5, making a clean sweep of the tournament and defending their title . . . as Morgan County Champs.

A Diploma
Is Worth a Lot More
Than the Paper
It's Printed on

Getting a high school diploma may not seem very important to you. But when it comes time to look for a job, that piece of paper will be worth a lot.

The fact is, you need a high school education to get almost any rewarding job.

So stick with it. It pays to stay in school.
